

Argus Emerging Institution of the Year

Selection Criteria (100 Marks – Growth & Potential Model)

1. Growth Trajectory – 30%

- Year-on-year increase in student enrollment
- Expansion of programs/courses
- Infrastructure scaling over time

2. Academic & Institutional Performance – 20%

- Academic outcomes (recent results)
- Early signs of consistency & quality
- Faculty strength and structure

3. Unique Positioning & Vision – 20%

- Differentiation (STEM focus, skills, innovation, niche programs)
- Clear institutional vision & long-term roadmap
- Brand identity in the market

4. Student Engagement & Experience – 15%

- Student participation in activities/clubs
- Feedback systems & satisfaction indicators
- Campus culture & inclusivity

5. Innovation & New Initiatives – 15%

- Introduction of modern learning practices
- Partnerships (industry, EdTech, government)
- New-age programs (AI, robotics, skills, entrepreneurship)